Leofric Lions Motoring Festival

Coventry.

A sunny Sunday 15th September morning, we headed to Coombe Abbey in Coventry to take part in this years Coventry Leofric Lions Motoring Festival.

Almost 120 cars mixed with motorbikes were parked by the visitor centre. On registering you were handed a goody bag containing a bottle of water, key ring, kitkat bar, Pen & book containing a route guide. Some lucky people like Derek also had a Bicycle Multi Tool kit in his goody bag, which Stuart & Colin thought that he had put the tool kit into his bag just to annoy them, (I didn't, promise).

Also joining us were mike & Maria in their lovely MG Mquette. A briefing was called at 9:45am at the registration gazebo, letting us know the start time and that Marshalls will be at difficult junctions along the way. It was then like Le Mans running start, we were all waiting for the Marshall to start the run.

We past through some lovely villages including Brandon, Ryton on Dunsmore, Southam, Leamington Spa and had a coffee Stop at the Green Man in kenilworth. Then made our way to the end venue the War Memorial park, Coventry.

A few charity stores were there and a bit of fun fair for the public, awards were given to best car in the show, which was this Daimler.

It was time for Lunch so out came the tables & chairs and time to relax.
